Civil Affairs Military Government Officer (MG/38G) Direct Commission Prescreening Questionnaire

Direct Commissioning is a unique and important opportunity for qualified U.S. citizens to serve their nation in the Active Army, Army Reserve, or Army National Guard as experts in their field. Earning a commission is a big deal. It is never given lightly and requires multiple checks. Remember, commissioned officers are authorized and governed by law. Below are a series of questions to assist in your prescreening. By answering these questions now, this will help answer if you are a potential candidate sooner rather than having to go through nearly the entire process.
